MISSION

Big Brothers Big Sisters enables life-changing mentoring relationships, igniting the power and potential of young people.

OUR REACH

Over 1,500 young people and their families were served in our communities last year.

YOUTH IN OUR COMMUNITIES FACE ADVERSITIES

Emotional

Social

Economic

Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs) are forms of trauma, including abuse, neglect or household dysfunction, that often lead to long-term toxic stress and/or mental illness.

OUR FOCUS: YOUTH IN MARGINALIZED COMMUNITIES WITH GREATER ACEs

Black, Indigenous, Newcomer Youth,
Youth In Care, LGBTQ2S+

Abuse, neglect, absent parent, mental health, high-risk behaviour, socio-economic barriers, victimization, neglect, witnessing violence, bullying.

MENTORING, AN INTERVENTION

Research demonstrates that the best ways to help eliminate long-term consequences of ACEs is through Developmental Relationships (stable and committed relationship with a supportive parent, caregiver, or other adult).

This confirms how important the work of Big Brothers Big Sisters is. Our work does not eliminate ACEs in a young person's life, however, mentorship helps to mitigate the long-term negative effects of ACEs.
